

July 22, 2010

A 'reel' Scream

A 'reel' Scream

Downtown Plymouth got a minor makeover but a major role in the fourth installment of the Scream franchise when movie crews turned the parking lot next to the Box Bar into the Woodsboro Police station. Throngs of onlookers gathered nearby hoping to catch a peek of their favorite stars in action. Scream 4 is due to hit theaters in April of next year. Crowds reportedly caught glimpses of Courtney Cox, David Arquette and Hayden Panettiere during the two days of shooting.

Click image to enlarge

Downtown Plymouth got a minor makeover but a major role in the fourth installment of the Scream franchise when movie crews turned the parking lot next to the Box Bar into the Woodsboro Police station. Throngs of onlookers gathered nearby hoping to catch a peek of their favorite stars in action. Scream 4 is due to hit theaters in April of next year. Crowds reportedly caught glimpses of Courtney Cox, David Arquette and Hayden Panettiere during the two days of shooting.

<http://www.journalgroup.com/Plymouth/11190>

No Comments Posted

Start the Discussion

New! Talk about more Plymouth issues in Journal Talk.

VOCUS Strengthen Your Media Relations Strategy
Learn useful ways for taking your media relations programs to the next level.

www.vocus.com

Ads by Google

TAKE A DEMO

VR Metro Your One Stop Website Solution!
Website
Design, Development, Promotion, Hosting, Consultation

Copyright © 2010 Associated Newspapers of Michigan. All rights reserved.