Starring The Gallery ~

Starring "The Gallery" is ready for three days of great events. August 5-7 brings the Buy Michigan Now Festival, Sidewalk Sales, and the First Friday Experience. The Buy Michigan Now Festival emphasizes what we offer all year long. With new and returning Michigan artists exhibiting their crafts in the Gallery we truly support Michigan and the arts.

Make Starring "The Gallery" your first stop of a week-end of shopping where we will offer a savings of 50% off and more on select items during the 3-day annual Sidewalk Sales.

The First Friday Experience will welcome four local artists – Acrylic artist Christine Moser, doll maker Charlie Patricolo, and musicians Sheila Landis and Rick Matle.

Christine Moser - Artist Statement: I truly do favor painting with acrylic since it gives me the ability to simply and quickly transform my thoughts and ideas onto canvas. This way I can really focus upon the moment of my inspiration.

I like venturing out to different painting mediums for example: coffee, metal or sand. This allows me to give my art work more three-dimensional effects and depth. Nothing inspires me more than the starkness of an empty wall; for I know I can give it life. That's my true calling . . . let the transformation begin.

Creating art gives me deep fulfillment and joy. As an artist, I strive for the viewer of my paintings, to feel and visualize the simplistic beauty that I bring forth in my work.

Charlie Patricolo has been making dolls for over forty years and returns to the Gallery with her unique one-of-a-kind dolls. Her sole purpose for her work is to spread smiles and joy.

Local vocalist, Sheila Landis with guitarist, Rick Matle, will once again entertain with their love of Brazilian music.

Please join us on Friday evening where you can meet up with friends, have a little fun, and enjoy a glass of wine while you browse the Gallery.

THE MYSTERY OF IRMA VEP By Charles Ludlam
Strange things are going on at Mandacrest, the Hillcrest estate of Lord Edgar and Lady Enid near Hamstead Heath. Lady Enid is Lord Edgar's second wife, but he's not quite over the death of his first, Irma Vep. The house staff also has its own opinions about the new lady of the manor. Throw in vampires, mummies, werewolves, travels to Egypt and two speedy actors who play all the characters and you have a clever, ridiculously-funny, side-splitting comedy with gothic plot twists –and who doesn't love a surprise ending?

Performances will be held at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday through Saturday, with matinees at 3 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets for performances range between $25 and $30.

TPT is looking for corporate sponsorships for its upcoming season. Sponsorship is a great way for businesses to support the arts while promoting their business and services. Levels begin at $2,500 for a show co-sponsor, and benefits are customizable.

Buy Michigan at Mill Race Village

The Northville Historical Society will join in the Buy Michigan Now Festival by focusing on all the locally made and Michigan made products in the J. M. Meade General Store at Mill Race Village.

Made in Northville products include hand made birdhouses, some that look like the Wash Oak School at the Village, as well as other styles. Other hand made items include slate type (coopered) small barrels, wooden spinning tops and

The blacksmiths have created horseshoes, coat hooks and other items at the working smithy in the Village. They demonstrate every Sunday afternoon from 1 – 4 p.m. during the summer and at special events. The Weaver's Guild, housed at the Village, crafted bobbin lace bookmarks and wash cloths.

We also offer handmade dolls and Mill Race Village framed photos & greeting cards created locally.
